

The 2010 Census

WHO'S KNOCKING AT MY DOOR?

Participation in the census is NOT dependent on your visa or residency status

- If you don't send back your census form you may receive a visit from a census taker
- The census taker will ONLY ask questions that appear on the census form
- The census taker will never ask to enter your home
- Every Census Bureau worker takes an oath for life to protect the confidentiality of census responses
- All census takers carry official government badges with their name printed on it
- You may also ask for a picture ID to confirm their identity

The easiest way to keep your information safe is to fill out your census form and mail it back right away.

By law, the Census Bureau cannot share respondents' answers with anyone - not the IRS, not the FBI, not the CIA, not with any government agency.
